ALFRED WILLIAMS,

A PROCLAMATION,

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, March 7, 1870.

By virtue of authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State, and by virtue of an act passed at the present session of the General Assembly, entitled "An act to secure the better protection of life and property," ratified the 29th day of January, 1870, and for the reason that the civil authorities of the county of Alamance are not able to protect the citizens of said county in the enjoyment of life and property, I hereby proclaim and declare that the county of Alamance is in a state of insurrection.

On the 26th of November 1869, a citizen of the United States, who was engaged in teaching a school in said county, was taken from his house by a band of men armed and disguised, and by them, cruelly beaten and scourged.

On the night of the 25th of February, 1870, a citizen of said county was taken from his house by a band of men, armed and disguised, and was, by them, hanged by the neck until he was dead on the Public Square in the town of Graham, near the Court House.

And more recently the Postmaster at Company Shops, in said county, an officer of the Government of the United States, was compelled to flee the county for protection, and while absent, a band of men armed and disguised visited his house with the purpose, doubtless, of taking his life; and this within a short distance of Federal troops stationed in said county, not to oversee or intimidate good citizens, but to preserve the peace and to protect the innocent and the law-abiding. In addition to these cases, information has been received at this department that peaceable and law-abiding citizens of the county aforesaid have been molested in their houses, have been whipped, shot, scourged, and threatened with further visitations of violence and outrage unless they would conform to some arbitrary standard of conduct set up by these disguised assassins and murderers.

I have issued proclamation after proclamation to the people of the State, warning all evil-doers and wicked or misguided persons of the law to cease their evil deeds, and, by leading better lives, propitiate those whose duty it is to enforce the law. I have invoked public opinion to aid me in repressing these outrages and in preserving peace and order. I have waited to see if the people of Alamance would assemble in public meeting and express their condemnation of such conduct by a portion of the citizens of the county, but I have waited in vain. No meeting of the kind has been held. No expression of disapproval even, of such conduct by the great body of the citizens has yet reached the department; but on the contrary, it is believed that the lives or influence who have reported themselves to the Executive have been thereby endangered, and it is further believed that many of the citizens of the county are so terrified that they do not compain, or attempt the arrest of criminals in their midst. The civil officers of the county are silent and powerless.

The laws must be maintained. These laws are over all. Every citizen, of whatsoever party or color, must be at liberty to express his political opinions, and must be safe in his own house. These outrages and these violations of law must and SHALL cease. Criminals must and SHALL be brought to justice. The whole power of both governments, State and Federal, is pledged to this, and the power will be exerted. Criminals who may escape to counties adjoining Alamance will be pursued, and if not delivered up by the civil authorities of said counties, or if sheltered or protected in said counties, or if knowledge of the evil doers with the intention will also be declared to be in a state of insurrection.

I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to aid the civil authorities in maintaining peace and good order, and to support me in my purpose to protect life and property without regard to party or color.

Done at the city of Raleigh this 7th day of March, 1870, and in the 94th year of our independence.

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

By the Governor:

W. H. HARRIS, Jr., Private Secretary.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, MARCH 10, 1870.

MISREPRESENTATION.

Any one who has read Capt. Marryatt's novels will recollect the cool effrontery of the Midshipman, Smallbones, who declared that the Captain's dog, Snarleyow, had cut off his own tale, when that unhappy animal had met with the misfortune of losing his caudal appendage.

We are reminded of this incident related by the novelist, by the cool audicity and effrontery of Gen. Littlefield's organ, yesterday, in several statements it made in regard to the Legislature and the investigation now going on in relation to Railroad bond frauds and Legislative bribery and corruption. We seldom feel called upon to notice these things in that paper, knowing that that sort of work is its vocation, and that it is not likely, on that very account, to make much impression, one way or the other, on the public mind. But yesterday, like Ragland at Louisburg, the editor seemed "to pile his soft on his self" to such an extent that we depart from our usual custom, not so much with a view of producing reform in that sheet, (for it is so steeped in iniquity as to be past hope,) nor to eradicate any false impression it may have made on the mind of any honest person, for none such regards what it says, but simply, as a matter of news, to show how far one can go in cool, palpable misrepresention of facts.

For instance: "The Democrats who have cost the State so much money," &c., when the Standard knows that the Republican majority in each House is more than two to one; that they can pass what appropriation bills they please, and then repeal them; adjourn when they please; meet when they please; appoint what committees they please; in short, can do just what they wish, and none can hinder them.

Again: "The Democrats have had every opportunity given them to find out the fraud and corruption which they affect to believe exists in the Legislature." Every body conversant with the facts, knows that every obstacle has been thrown in the way that could be; that four-fifths of the time of the Committee of the Whole, every time it has been in session, has been taken up in quibblings and objections, and every body knows who did these things, and that they were leading Republicans.

"We have never believed that any corruption existed," says the Standard. That which is known cannot be a matter of faith to any one. "The result of their labors has proved the truth of our belief." On the contrary the result has proved, to all impartial minds, that there has been corruption, and further, it has proved that, whether designedly or not, the efforts of certain parties have proved very effectual in preventing its exposure and punishment.

The expenses of all the investigating committees combined, does not equal one twentieth of the expense of passing the original Penitentiary swindle, so when the Standard charges the Democrats with running the State to exorbitant expense it cuts a shabby figure in the mirror of truth.

"The honor and integrity of the Republicans of the Legislature, are fully vindicated." We hope this will satisfy them. But how is it vindicated? Is it vindicated by the exposure of the penitentiary swindle? By the Chatham Railroad bill? By Littlefield's grog shop in the Capitol? By the missing Treasurer of the Western Railroad. By the overcoats, watches and jewelry given by Littlefield to members of the Legislature? By the payment of members' hotel bills? By the presentation to a member's wife of a fine carriage horse? By the missing Western N. C. Railroad bonds? Does all this vindicate the honor and integrity of the Republican members of the Legislature?

But the coolest piece of audacity in the Standard of yesterday, is the insinuation that the refusal of the "Bragg Committee" to send its records to the House was "a slap in the face," of Messrs. Pou, Jarvis, Durham and those who acted with them, when it is well known that those gentlemen not only did not ask for said records, but opposed Littlefield's having them when he asked for them, in order, as he said, to "refresh his memory."

Those who contended that Gen. Littlefield should have these records, were, Sinclair, French, Moore of Chowan and a few others. Mr. Seymour was infavor, at first, of his having them, but afterwards expressed himself as not clear in his mind on the subject. But this insinuation on the part of the Standard is about upon a par, in regard to justice and fair dealing, with most of its assertions when the actions of political opponents are the theme.

BLOW YOUR HORN BILLY!

President Smith, of the N. C. Railroad, writes a letter to the Standard concerning the notice we made of his telegram to Mr. McGaugh recently, on the subject of carrying Radical voters out of the State. The substance of Maj. Smith's letter may be summed up in what the learned call "rigmarole."

The Major says, or intimates, that he don't belong to either of the parties as at present organized. We had been misled by appearances. We thought he belonged to that party that he forced all the employees of his Road to vote for in the last election, under the penalty of dismission from their places. We also thought he belonged to one of the parties now in existence, from the fact that Governor Holden said, in his inaugural, that none could hold office, from the lowest to the highest, who did not belong to one of the parties; and from the strict adherence that has been observed in regard to that rule, we have been in the habit of classing every man in the State with that party, when he has been so fortunate (!) as to get office under it.

If we have been mistaken or misled in the matter by these and a thousand other circumstances, of similar bearing and import, in classifying the Major politically, more's the pity. Blow away, Billy!

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, March 9, 1870.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Leave of absence granted to Messrs. Seigrist and Graham.

Harris, of Wake, col., arose to a question of privilege. The Reporter of the SENTINEL in the proceedings of the Committee of the Whole on yesterday, made him say that the "Committee was acting without authority," whereas, he merely called attention to the informality of the proceedings, owing to the fact that the resolution under which the Committee was acting could not be found, &c.

Mr. Matheson presented a petition in the matter of N. A. Moose, of Alexander county. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. French: A bill to fund the State debt. Referred.

By Mr. Hicks: A bill in relation to the courts of Courts of Clay. Referred.

By G. W. Price: A bill to incorporate Gibson Lodge, F. A. Y. Masons in the city of Wilmington. Referred.

Mr. Seymour for Judiciary Committee, reported upon various bills; all of which were appropriately disposed of.

Mr. Durham moved that the House do now resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole, and upon that motion called the previous question.

Upon the call for the previous question, the yeas and nays were called, and the motion for the previous question was rejected by a vote of yeas 45, nays 47.

The question then recurred upon the motion to go into the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. French opposed the motion. He thought the House should first take some action upon his resolution introduced yesterday.

The yeas and nays were called, when Mr. Durham's motion, was adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Barnes, Boddie, Candler, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Farrow, Forebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, Hunnant, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Chowan, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Stanton, Strudwick, Sweat, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, Whitley and Williams, of Sampson.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Carey, Cawthorn, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Hilliard, Hodgin, Horney, Hudgins, Kinney, Lafin, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Price, Proctor, Ragland, Rea, Renfrow, Robbins, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Martin, Stevens, Stilley, Vest, Waldrop and Wilson.

Mr. Pou took the Chair and announced that not knowing the hour when the House would go into the Committee of Whole, he did not renew the summons for Gen. Littlefield, but would send one for him immediately.

The Clerk read the proceedings of the Committee on yesterday, and after some debate, they were approved.

Gen. Littlefield then appeared on the stand.

Question by Mr. Durham: State the circumstances under which Senator Robbins borrowed $20 from you, spoken of yesterday; the date of the loan; the purpose for which it was borrowed, and when it was returned, and the circumstances under which it was refunded.

Answer. I cannot now remember the date but it was sometime last spring, I was coming up the street near the Bank, met Senator Robbins, he was going out of town and wanted to loan $20, I replied I did not have it but if he would go to the standard office, I would let him have it; he accompanied me to the office and I directed the Cashier to pay him $20, which he did. A few days after that I met him (Robbins) in the Capitol yard, he handed me a $20 bill in the presence of several gentlemen remarking that he wanted them to witness that he paid Littlefield $20 loaned, but it had not been received for corruption. I was the circumstance and the remark it created that impressed it upon my (Littlefield's) memory.

Question by the same. Are the two persons named yesterday the only persons you have loaned money.

Answer. I do not think they are.

Question by the same. Give the names of all other members you can recollect and the amount loaned to each.

The witness protested against answering questions relating purely to his and other men's private business. It was not only violating his, but the rights of those to whom he referred. He pronounced it an outrage and asked a decision of the Chair, and if that decision should be unfavorable, he would ask some of his friends to appeal from that decision.

The Chair said the only protection that Courts gave witnesses was to allow them to refuse to answer a question upon the ground that it might tend to criminate him. He held that the question was admissible (Here a long debate arose upon the point whether an appeal from the decision of the Chair was admissible in Committee of the Whole, and upon the admissibility and propriety of Mr. Durham's question.)

Mr. French said in order that the House might instruct the Committee in regard to questions of this nature, he would move that the Committee rise, report progress and ask leave to sit again. The motion was put to a vote and adopted.

Mr. Pou (Chairman) reported progress and as directed, and asked leave to sit again.

Mr. Durham moved that the Committee be instructed to require the witness to answer his question.

Mr. Downing moved to lay the motion on the table.

The yeas and nays being called, Mr. Downing's motion to table was rejected by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Barnett, Carson, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris of Wake, Hilliard, Hodgin, Justus of Henderson, Kelly of Moore, Kinney, Laffin, Mayo, Moore of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Price, Proctor, Ragland, Rea, Renfrow, Reynolds, Simonds, Smith of Martin, Stevens, Stilley, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, Wilkie, Wilson.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Banner, Barnes, Boddie, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Farrow, Forebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green Grier, Harris of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, Hinnant, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly of Davie, Leary, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Stanton, Strudwick, Sweat, Sykes, Thompson, Welch, Williams of Sampson.

Mr. Durham called the previous question upon his motion instructing the Committee to require the witness to answer his question.

The yeas and nays were called and the House rejected the call for the previous question by a vote of yeas 45, nays 47.

The question recurred upon Mr. Durham's motion.

Mr. Downing said that he did not understand that the Committee arose for the purpose of entertaining any such motion.—He thought it was for the purpose of adopting some rule as to questions of this kind. He hoped that Mr. D's. motion would not be adopted and some rules agreed upon to regulate questions of this nature.

Mr. Welch hoped the motion would be adopted. The names of two gentlemen had been given and now he was in favor of removing all restrictions in this direction. He wished to have all moneys loaned, presents of watches, horses, &c., thoroughly investigated. He could not understand why innocent men should oppose this; they could not possibly suffer, and if there were guilty men here, they should be made to suffer. He thought it due, not only to the fair name of the State, but to the reputation of honest members, that the imputations of fraud and corruption now resting upon this Legislature, should be thoroughly ventilated. If corruption was proven upon any Conservative, why he should be kicked out of this Hall, if upon any Republican, let him go the same way. The grave charges now resting upon this body should be sifted to the very bottom, and the members of this Legislature owed to themselves, as honest men, whose fair names were dear to them, that every means should be taken to accomplish that end, and not the slightest obstacle should be thrown in the way of a full, fair and searching investigation.

Harris of Wake, col., opposed the motion of Mr. Durham.

Mr. Welch again took the floor in advocacy of Mr. Durham's motion. If Republicans on this floor chose to crush this investigation in order to shield some of their friends, and think the crushing a party victory, go-ahead; but you are making a black record for yourselves before the people and they will hold you to a strict responsibility. You are sacrificing yourselves upon the altar of party, and you will soon find it out, &c.

Mr. Downing said he would inform the gentleman from Haywood, (Mr. Welch,) that the Republicans could take care of themselves without the advice of Conservatives, &. He hoped that Mr. Durham's motion would be rejected.

Mr. Pou said it was strange that gentlemen should talk continually about the Bragg Committee being so much more competent to take charge of this matter of corruption than the Committee of the Whole, when a glance at the resolution under which the Committee (Bragg) was acting, would show that it gave them no power to take cognizance of such matters. If he, as a purely business transaction, should have borrowed money from Gen. Littlefield, he would not object to have it spoken of in relation to this examination.

The question recurring upon Mr. Durham's motion of instruction to the Committee of the Whole, the yeas and nays were called, and the motion was adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Argo, Armstrong, Barnes, Boddie, Candler, Cherry, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Farrow, Forebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, Hilliard, Hinnant, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Martin, Snipes, Stanton, Strudwick, Sweat, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, Wilkie, Williams of Sampson.

NAYS.—Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Carson, Carey, Cawthorn, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, Franklin, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Horney, Hudgins, Justus, of Henderson, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Laffin, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Proctor, Ragland, Renfrow, Reynold's, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Stilley, Vest, Waldrop, Wilson.

Mr. Durham moved that the House do now go into the Committee of the Whole, and on that motion called the previous question.

The yeas and nays were had, and the call for the previous question was adopted by a vote of yeas 49, nays 43.

The motion to go into Committee of the Whole was put to a vote and adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Banner, Barnes, Boddie, Candler, Clayton, Davis, Durham, Farrow, Forebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hendricks, Hicks, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly of Davie, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Chowan, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Stanton, Strudwick, Sweat, Sykes, Thompson, Welch, Williams of Sampson.

Mr. Pou again took the Chair.

Mr. Durham's question was then again and propounded.

Answer.—It is impossible for me to remember the names of members I have loaned money to without some circumstance to refresh my memory, as I was not here but a few days during the last winter session or this, and nearly all the money I loaned was to members during the election for the adoption of the Constitution or during the Presidential election. I have been in the habit of loaning money to parties ever since I came to the State—but the way it occurred has been, they would meet me on the streets or elsewhere and call for a loan. If I had, is I generally let them have it, if not, I declined; they generally returned it to me or gave me their notes, or assigned their certificates of pay. When I have the notes I can tell, and in some instances, of a recent date, I have met members and Senators away from home as was the case of Mr. Harris, I loaned them money because they were short—I call to mind the fact that I loaned Mr. Barnett of Person $100, in Washington City a short time ago, and I did, I think, Senator Jones of Columbus, and I find in looking over my papers this morning, I hold a note for $75, money loaned, signed by Mr. Renfrow; also Mr. Gunter from Chatham, solicited from me some time last Spring, a loan for one year of $500, giving his obligation; he has since written to me about the payment, as it falls due within the next few months.

The Witness here stated that he would swear solemnly that not a cent of this money was loaned or given directly, or indirectly, for any purpose of bribery or corruption, or to influence in any way, the votes of the gentlemen alluded to.

Question by Mr. Foster. Have you, or have you not issued free Railroad passes to members of this General Assembly for the purpose of influencing his or their votes.

Answer. I am not President or other officer of any Railroad that has any transportation but carts, and I have given no transportation over them.

Question, by Mr. Durham: Did you not swear before an Investigating Committee of this Legislature at the session of 1868 and 69, that you loaned a member of this House $1260?

Answer. I did not for the reason I was not sworn before any Investigating Committee at the session of 1868-69.

By Mr. French: Are the cases of loaning money that you state, all that you remember?

Answer. I cannot swear whether it is or not, I cannot now call to mind the name of any other member.

The witness here made a statement in regard to Mr. Barnett, exonerating him from anything like bribery or corruption, stating that the gentleman (Barnett) had given him his certificate of pay a few days ago for the money advanced.

Question, by Mr. Durham: Did you loan Mr. Stevens, of Craven $1200 during the session of 1868-69?

Answer. I have no recollection of ever having loaned Mr. Stevens any money.

Question, by the same: Did you draw your draft on any house in New York City or elsewhere in favor of any member of this General Assembly during the years 1868-69.

Answer.—I may or I may not have drawn drafts on my bankers in New York city, in favor of some members of this General Assembly, as I have sold exchange in New York, but I cannot tell without seeing either my check book or the account of my bankers, whether I gave them in the name of any member of this General Assembly, for during the course of the year I draw many hundred checks.

Mr. Ames moved that the Committee rise and be discharged. Carried.

Mr. Pou (chairman) reported progress.

Mr. Durham moved that Gen. Littlefield and Mr. Stevens of Craven, be summoned before the Committee of the Whole to-morrow.

Mr. French moved as a substitute for the motion, a resolution excusing Gen. Littlefield from further attendance upon said Committee.

The substitute was adopted by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Barnett, Barnes, Candler, Carson, Carey, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster Franklin, French, Gahagan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Hendricks, Hodgin, Horney, Hudgins, Justus, of Henderson, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Laffin, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Pearson, Proctor, Renfrow, Reynolds, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Martin, Vestal, Waldrop, Wilson.

NAYS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Barnes, Boddie, Clayton, Davis, Durham, Farrow, Forebee, Gatling, Gibson, Green, Grier, Hawkins, Hicks, Hinnant, Hodnett, Humphries, Ingram, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Long, of Chatham, Malone, Matheson, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Price, Proffitt, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Snipes, Stanton, Strudwick, Sweat, Thompson, Welch, Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Malone offered a joint resolution that the Bragg Committee be empowered to extend their investigations to bribery and corruption among members, giving to them the same powers which they possess in regard to the investigation of Railroad matters, &c.

Mr. M. moved to suspend the rules and on that motion called for previous question.

The call for the previous question was rejected by a vote of yeas 35, nays 53.

The motion to suspend the rules was put to a vote and rejected.

On motion the House then adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

[Reported for the WESTERN by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.]

WEDNESDAY, March 9, 1870.

Court assembled at the usual hour.

All the Justices being present except his Honor Justice Reade.

Messrs. Merrimon, Phillips, Batchelor, and Badger, were the only gentlemen of the Bar in attendance upon the Court, during the day.

His Honor, Justice Rodman, delivered the following opinions, to wit:

State vs. M. P. Lyttle, from Buncombe, error, judgment reversed, and venire de novo.

E. T. Clemmons vs. E. D. Hampton and W. B. March, from Forsyth, error, judgment reversed, and venire de novo.

In the matter of ex parte Moore and others, the Court made the following order: "Upon the argument ex parte Biggs, at this term, the power of the Court to strike from the list of Attorneys any unworthy member, having been conceded, ordered, that the rule, upon the signing of what is called, 'A solemn protest of the members of the Bar of the State of North Carolina,' made June Term, 1869, be discharged."

By RODMAN, J.—Finger vs. Finger, from Lincoln, judgment reversed in part. Injunction continued until the final hearing. Suit remanded.

Kerr vs. Wallace, from Mecklenburg, no error, judgment affirmed.

The business of the term being concluded, Court adjourned until the first Monday in June next, the beginning of the Summer Term.

DIED,

In Quitman, Texas, on the 29th of January, WILLIAM L. ALEXANDER, son of the late Julius Alexander, of Mecklenburg.

WILLIAM L. ALEXANDER graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1854. He endeared himself to his fellow-students, and especially to his class-mates, by the gentleness of his manners and the kindness of his heart. Ambitious, industrious, talented, he bore off the first honors of a class, distinguished alike for its scholarship and abilities.

His attainments attracted attention shortly after his graduation, and he was called upon to preside over a College of high standing in the State of Texas. He was engaged in these duties upon the breaking out of hostilities between the North and South. Young, full of health and talent and hope, he listened to the call of his country. Suffering from the hardships of the service and from severe wounds, his career marked by a patriotic devotion to duty and conspicuous gallantry, the end of the war found him ruined in health and fortune. Since then all these long years have been a slow death to him not having the strength to seek his mother and kindred and friends and his old home to die. He died true to his country and at peace with his God.

RESCINDING THE COMMITTEE.

Rejoice, O, ye Rascals, and be exceeding glad, for ye have escaped, if only for a little while!

Yesterday, in Committee of the Whole, in the House of Commons, when Littlefield was being hard pressed, and the trail of villainy was growing hot, his Radical protectors suddenly aroused themselves at the threatening posture of affairs and passed a hasty motion, offered by French, to discharge Littlefield from further appearance before the Committee.

This was immediately followed by a resolution, introduced by sleepy Downing to abolish the Committee of the Whole, which was at once adopted.

Maj. Malone then offered a resolution enlarging the powers of the Bragg Committee so as to enable that Committee to investigate Legislative bribery and corruption, and although many of the tricksters had frequently demanded such a course during the last three days, finding that Littlefield was now free to depart, they refused to suspend the rules to pass the resolution.

All these things were accomplished by the same set of men. They are the men whose checks have been blanched like a sheet for the whole time that Littlefield has been on the stand. But oh, how their countenances brightened, when they succeeded in having him dismissed! Those who were present say, the change in their countenances was like the first flash of sunlight after the total eclipse of the sun last August.

Do these men imagine that they have not involuntarily shown their guilt by their actions and by their anxious countenances during the examination, and by their broad grins of delight when it was over? Their former gloom and after delight was perfectly apparent to the most casual observer in the lobbies.

We propose soon to give details of all the incidents of this remarkable exhibition which has been going on in the House. The cavilling; squirming; the lying; the evasions; they have been wonderful.—Would to God all the people of the State could have looked in upon the scene.

We have no idea that Littlefield will await the result of Mr. Malone's resolution to enlarge the powers of the Bragg committee.

TUCKER HALL, TO NIGHT.—We are assured by those concerned, that if the Tableaux and Musical entainment at Tucker Hall, to night, should fail of proving a grand success, it shall not be from any neglect or want of preparation on the part of those getting it up.

Among the tableaux and scenes will be exhibited "Aurora" "Sale of Circassian Slaves," "Witches, Dance," two scenes from Opera Faust, "Don't go, Tommy" and "Come back, Tommy," Song and Tableaux.

Several acted Charades will be presented and the whole interspersed with songs, glees, choruses &c., among the musical pieces the Tyrolean Boat Song will be given in character.

The occasion will, no doubt, be one of much enjoyment, and we advise all to go and enjoy their share.

The price of admission will be 50 cents for the parquette, 25 cents for the gallery, and 25 cents for children.

FATHER DUNNE.—The Mass of Requiem for the Rev. John Patrick Dunne, lately deceased, and formerly Roman Catholic Pastor of this district, will take place in St. John's Church this morning (Thursday) at 8 o'clock, and not at 9 o'clock as announced on last Sunday. The hour has been changed for the convenience of persons who could not attend later.

We have elsewhere alluded to the scene in the House, yesterday, when Littlefield was dismissed and the Committee of the Whole was dissolved. The broad grin of exultation and gladness stuck out on many countenances. Sinclair looked like he had just been relieved of all the sins his Church had charged him with. Sleepy Downing waked up as lively as if he had just received a telegram from the spirit land from the spirit-rapping goddess of Enchantment. Members hurried to and fro through the Hall, exclaiming. "Now, you see! Now, you see!" in short, many of them seemed half beside themselves with joy at the relief they had obtained.

THE SUPREME COURT adjourned the Winter term yesterday, having been in session since the 3rd of January. During the term there have been 116 cases argued and opinions delivered on them, of which there were 71 reversals and 45 affirmations.

In looking over the reports we find there were 24 appeals from Judge Watt's decisions, 20 of which were reversed and 4 affirmed. We advise His Honor, hereafter, to make up his opinion and then give judgment the other way; then, according to the above showing, he would be right six times as often as he has been heretofore.

The next term of the Supreme Court will open on the first Monday in June next.

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVAL.—Moring has returned from Apex, after an absence from his seat in the House of about three weeks, and taken "a little brandy with some sugar in it," to be "put with them oysters." Be cautious in your diet, Moring.

JUST OUT.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Hoarseness. None so pleasant, none sure so quick.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The following is the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of Leak vs. Commissioners of Richmond county.

The decision is a very interesting one, and one of great importance to the people of the State:

James P. Leak
Commissioners of Richmond County. Opinion.

PEARSON, C. J.—This is a special proceeding under the new mode of proceeding, in the nature of a writ of mandamus under the old mode, to compel the authorities of the county of Richmond to pay money lent by the plaintiff to the persons then exercising the powers of the county, to enable them to provide salt for the use of the citizens during the war; as evidence of which the plaintiff relies on a note executed by Ij. W. Harrington, Chairman of the County Court. The note recites an order of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions; but it nowhere appears that a majority of the Justices of the county were present, when the order was made, and there is no averment that such was the fact.

This objection is fatal; for both the ordinance of the Convention, and the statute on which this transaction is based, gives the authority, "a majority of the Justices being present." This fact must appear affirmatively; it not being a matter within the ordinary powers of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions. The maxim omnia præsumuntur has no application. State vs. Powell, 2 Ind. 275, 4 id. 327, 5 Id. 207.

Passing by this objection and assuming that the Commissioners of a county may be sued, as to which see Winslow vs. Commissioners of Perquimans county at this term, upon the main question there are several views, which sustain the opinion of his Honor.

1. At the time of the Legislative act, giving power to the Justices to make the contract, and at the date of the contract, the persons exercising the power of the State, and the persons exercising the power of the county, had disavowed their allegiance and put themselves in open hostility to the rightful State government, and to the government of the United States.—In other words, there was Rebellion.

It follows, the courts of the rightful State government, which has regained its supremacy, cannot treat the acts of persons, so unlawfully exercising the powers of the State and county authority, as valid, unless the Court is satisfied, that the acts were innocent, and such as the lawful government would have done. So, when the plaintiff asks the Court to compel the defendants, who are in the rightful exercise of the power of the County to perform a contract made by a set of men, who were wrongfully exercising the power, the onus of showing that the contract was for an innocent purpose, and was not made in aid of the rebellion, is upon the plaintiff. If the matter be left in doubt, the Courts cannot enforce the claim against the rightful authorities of the county.

So far from being left in doubt it is clear, the contract was in aid of the rebellion.—Any act which would not have been done except for the resistance of the rebellion, and which was calculated to counteract the measures adopted by the government of the United States for its suppression; and to enable the people in insurrection to protract the struggle, was in aid of the rebellion.

The ides can be more clearly expressed by examples. Statutes sanctioning and protecting marriage and the domestic relations; appropriations for the ordinary administration of Justice, or for the support of the Lunatic Asylum, are acts having no reference to the rebellion, and that would have been done anyhow. So although it may be true, that the doing of these things made the condition of the people more endurable; still in no fair sense can they be considered as having been done in aid of the rebellion.

On the other hand, statutes and appropriations to run the blockade, and introduce for the use of the people, cotton cards and medicine, or to supply the people with salt, by erecting works for its production and providing for its transportation and distribution, whether done directly by the State or indirectly through the agency of the county authorities, are acts of a novel and unprecedented character, and such as would not have been done, except for the existence of the rebellion. So the case is covered by the first requisite in the definition of an act in aid of the rebellion.

That the act of providing salt for the use of the people was calculated to counteract the blockade and other measures of the United States to suppress the rebellion, and to enable the people of the insurgent States to protract the struggle, is a matter too plain for discussion. Any one who attempts to prove the contrary, must confess the self impeachment of allowing his reasoning faculties to be obscured by prejudice and sympathy for "the cause of the South," as it was called in the argument.

Grant seizes a man in the act of carrying corn or salt into Vicksburg. He says "the women and children are in a state of actual starvation, and my motive was to do an act of charity and humanity, and mitigate the rigors of war." Reply.—"The laws of war are paramount to motives of charity and humanity. Starving the citizens was resorted to, in order to compel the authorities to surrender; and you attempt to counteract my measures and aid them to protract the siege!" This instance of a single act of an individual is given by way of illustration. But when the act is done under the authority of a wrongful government, which had subverted the rightful State government and was in open rebellion, whether it be done directly by the government, or indirectly through the agency of its creatures, the wrongful county authorities, the position that it was done "merely as an act of charity and humanity" and was not calculated to aid the rebellion, carries the evidence of fallacy on its face.

The act per se did aid the rebellion, and its being done by the wrongful county authority, acting as part and parcel of the wrongful State government, organized for the avowed purpose of sustaining the rebellion, tends the more strongly to fix its character.

The Court is not at liberty to shut its eyes to the historical fact, that furnishing salt was not a single act, but was one of a long series of acts, in aid of the rebellion. Noscitur a sociis.

The ordinance of the Convention of 1861 assuming legislative powers; the acts of the Legislature during the war, and the acts of the county authorities, all follow out a common purpose, to resist the invasion. A military board is established; appropriations are made to procure clothes and arms for the soldiers; cotton cards, medicine, salt, &c., for the people; bounties are offered for volunteers; the powers of the county authorities are enlarged; the counties equip volunteers and transport their baggage to camp, take measures to provide salt &c., and give every assurance that the wives and children of soldiers will be cared for; in short, the authorities, both State and county, strain every nerve to "resist the invasion." Witness the debt of the State and counties accumulated during the war!

A change takes place. What was then considered, "resisting an invasion," turns out to have been "aiding a rebellion." Thereupon it is said, with unconsciousness, "certain of these acts ought not to have been entered as items under the head of "resisting invasion," and should now be transferred and posted as items under a distinct head, "charity and humanity;" for such acts were not calculated or intended either to resist invasion or to aid rebellion, and did not have that effect!

See Texas vs. White, U. S. Supreme Court, American Law Review, July 1869, page 765. It is there held, "the act of the Military board in applying bonds belonging to the State to pay for cotton cards and medicine, for the use of the people of Texas during the war, is void; on the ground, that the purchase of these articles was an act in aid of the rebellion; and to the suggestion, "that the purchase of cotton cards and medicine was not a contract in aid of the rebellion," but "for obtaining goods capable of a use entirely legitimate and innocent," the Court merely says, "we cannot adopt this view;" and reference is made to the fact, that the act was done by a military board, and was only one of a series of acts, calculated to aid the rebellion, for the purpose of showing that the question was too plain to admit of discussion.

There is another view of the subject, on which his Honor seems to have put his decision. "The rightful authorities of the County, are under no obligation to pay a debt contracted by a set of men who were wrongfully exercising the powers of the county and were engaged in open rebellion."

To meet this objection, the plaintiff relies on the ordinance of the Convention, 18 Oct, 1865, sec. 4, "all the acts and doings of the civil officers of the State, since 20th January 1861, done under, and by virtue of any authority, purporting to be a law of the State, which is consistent with its allegiance to the United States, and with the constitution of the State, shall be deemed valid &c." The question is, will the legislative act conferring power on the Justices of the county of Richmond to contract this debt, consistent with the allegiance of the State to the government of the United States?

Here too, the onus is on the plaintiff. The train of reasoning in the first view taken of this case, applies with equal, if not with more force, to this, and proves clearly, that the legislative act, purporting to be a law of the State, under which the Justices contracted this debt, was in addition being consistent with the allegiance of the State to the United States was in aid of resisting the invasion of the U. S. as it was then termed—in other words, in aid of the rebellion.

According to these two views, to entitle the plaintiff to judgment, he must satisfy the Court, both in respect to the innocence of the contract, and that it was not calculated to aid the rebellion or intended to have that effect, and in respect to the legislative act, under which the Justices derived their power to borrow this money, that it was also innocent and was not calculated and intended to aid the rebellion and protract the struggle; upon which latter point, the acts and doings of the Convention 1861, and of the legislatures following it, during the war, bear, perhaps with greater force, than upon the contract made by the Justices.

The question is against the plaintiff on both points.

There is another view of this question. The people of the State in Convention (Oct. 1865) ordain "All debts incurred by the state in aid of the late rebellion, directly or indirectly, are void, and no General Assembly of this State shall have power to assume or provide for the payment of the same, or any portion thereof," not to "assume or provide for the payment of any portion of the debts, incurred directly or indirectly, by the so called Confederate States," or by its agents or under its authority, ratified 19th October 1865.

"No county, city or town or other municipal corporation, shall assume or pay, nor shall any tax be levied or collected for the payment of any debt, or the interest upon any debt, contracted directly or indirectly in aid or support of the rebellion." Const. 1868, ar. 7, sec. 13.

Here is a declaration of the will of the people, obligatory upon the Courts, that no "war debt" as it is termed, contracted either by the State or by the counties, or cities, or towns, shall be paid.

The discussion of the subject into which we have entered at large, was considered important to show that the furnishing salt to the people during the war was a measure calculated and in order to aid in resisting the invasion, in other words, to aid the rebellion. 2nd, That the ordinance of the Convention of 1865, and the provision of the Constitution, is not obnoxious to the charge of impairing the obligation of contracts, for that, these contracts, which the people could not be enforced by the Courts of the rightful government of the State as now reconstructed, without violating a well settled principle of the common law, and without imparing the integrity of the conditions accepted and acted upon, in restoring the State to its constitutional relations to the government of the United States, as one of the States of the Union.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies endorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astra" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

All its Policies are non-forfeitable and participate in profits from the beginning.

Dividends declared and applied annually to policy holders on the contribution plan.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, notedthe following points.

1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James P. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay in lieu of No. 34,161, as soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,99
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,397 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested net assets amounting to over Ten Million Three hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
